

Welcome to Markham

A Great School District

Portland families are committed to our public schools, and Portland's public schools are committed to our families.

Parents' Top Choice

Families in the Portland Public School district overwhelmingly choose public schools—over 84% of the time (compared to only 70% in Seattle, 73% in Boston, and 77% in Minneapolis).

Connected Communities

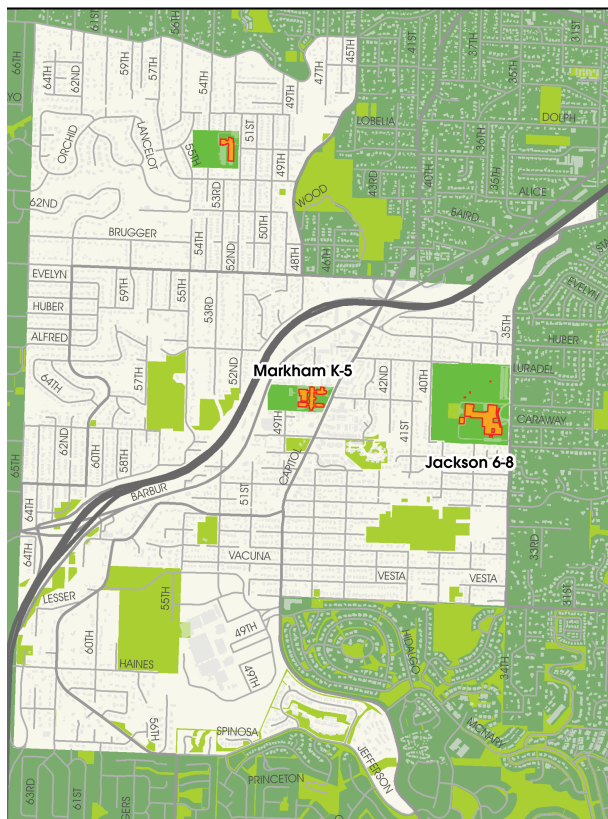

From sports events to adult education classes, from picnics to community swaps, schools are places where neighbors of all ages connect.

Guaranteed Neighborhood Schools

Schools are at the center of each great Portland neighborhood. Every child is guaranteed a spot in their neighborhood school, so kids and families remain part of the same community of classmates and friends for all 13 years of public school.

Healthy Kids

Kids who go to their neighborhood school are more likely to walk or bike to school, and do so from a younger age, which keeps kids healthy.
