WHS BAND NEWS - NEW TUBA, NEW OUTFITS

The 2009-2010 WHS Band Program is starting off with a fantastic year. We are pleased to announce that the Music Program raised the funds needed to purchase a new tuba. This has been a much-needed addition to our program -- as a community, we have worked for several years to reach this goal. The tuba will debut at the first concert on Tuesday, October 27th at Wilson. Our need this year is performance apparel to give our groups a cohesive look and feel. Our ladies have never had performance apparel for band. The gentlemen have pieced together tuxedos left from years past. Not many are left, and they are in desperate need of repair and replacement. We are purchasing additional jackets, pants, and shirts to outfit the gentlemen and purchase formal dresses for the ladies. Our current estimate to begin this process works out to approximately $45 per student. Our goal is to have the new performance apparel ready for their first concert on October 27. We can accomplish this goal if we all work together. If you would like to help us outfit WHS band members, please send your donation by check (payable to Wilson High School) Attention: Paul Jolstead, Band Director, Wilson High School, 1151 SW Vermont, Portland, Oregon 97219. Include Band Outfits in the memo line of your check. If you have any questions about the performance apparel, you may contact Nancy Biskey, Band Booster President, at nbiskey@msn.com. Thank you for your support of the Wilson High School Bands. Please join us for our first band, orchestra concert on Tuesday, October 27, 7:00pm, Wilson Auditorium.
