The Emerson Public Charter School (K-5)

1800 SW 1st Avenue Suite #1, Portland, 97201, 503-525-6124, www.emersonschool.org

Administrator: Amanda McAdoo, info@emersonschool.org

Parents play a key role in the school community, and families come from all quadrants of the city, creating a school culture that integrates, honors, and celebrates individual and community diversity. The integrated curriculum which includes The Project Approach and Positive Discipline, is developed to continually build on students' previous learning and experiences in a strong supportive community. Real-world problem solving, purposeful field studies, and student interest are combined with direct instruction in reading, writing, and math to create a strong and comprehensive curriculum.

KairosPDX Learning Academy Public Charter School (K-5)

4915 N Gantenbein Ave., Portland, 97217, 503-567-9820, www.kairospdx.org

Head of School: Timothy Rodgers, charter@kairospdx.org

KairosPDX is a K-5 public charter school focused on delivering excellent, equitable education. Through culturally responsive instruction, community collaboration, and family partnership we are focused on closing Portland's racial achievement and opportunity gaps. Our curriculum involves children in culturally relevant, inquiry based instruction. We focus on family engagement and the power of community to bring out the best in each child. We empower confident readers, writers and mathematicians who are problem solvers and change makers.

Portland Arthur Academy Public Charter School (K-5)

743 SE 76th Ave., Portland, 97215, 503-257-3936, www.arthuracademy.org

Principal: Tara Miller, tmiller@arthuracademy.org

Portland Arthur Academy Public Charter School seeks to accelerate achievement and learning for all students. The program achieves success through a highly organized incremental mastery program. Using a highly researched direct instruction program gives teachers the best tools possible to clearly communicate the academic message. This entails the students mastering their tasks daily before moving on to the next skill. Through positive structured expectations, Portland Arthur Academy creates a safe, thriving learning environment for all students.

Portland Village Public Charter School (K-8)

4650 S Macadam Ave., Portland, 97239, 503-445-0056, www.portlandvillageschool.org

Executive Director: Jennifer Stackhouse, info@portlandvillageschool.org

Portland Village School is a K-8 public Waldorf school. Public Waldorf education exists to serve both the individual and society, and seeks to offer the most supportive conditions possible for the development of each student's unique capacities. Through culturally responsive, arts-integrated curriculum and teaching practices, PVS aims to engender the following qualities in our students: developmentally appropriate, academically informed, independent thinking; a harmonious relationship between thinking, feeling, and willing; self-awareness and social competence; an interest in the world, with active respect for oneself, one's community, and the environment.
